

WHAT ARE CHEWS?

Community Health Education Workers provide support and outreach services in the community while identifying root causes of chronic absenteeism.

We help bridge communities to the resources they need while providing

- informal counseling
- social support and
- empowering students and their family.

CONTACT US

Chaffey Joint Union High School District
CHEWs

Montclair High School
Carlos Cubillo
carloscubillo@elsolnec.org
(909) 200-6464

Chaffey High School
yvetteravelar@elsolnec.org
Yvette Avelar

Colony and Ontario High School

OUTREACH

- Food Box/ Resource drop off (if transportation is unavailable)
- Community resource referral
- Accompaniment through phone or in person- translation provided if needed

PARENT/STUDENT SUPPORT

- 1 to 1 goal setting for families based on individual needs
- Linkages to community resources
- Teach about important health topics through parent workshops
- Support connecting back to school site and increasing attendance

WHAT WE DO

EMPOWERMENT

Teach families:

- where and how to access your local free resources
- how to set up an email, access Aeries, Zoom, and Canvas
- how to apply for programs such as Medicaid/Medical, CALFresh & C4Yourself

NAVIGATION

CHEWs help with:

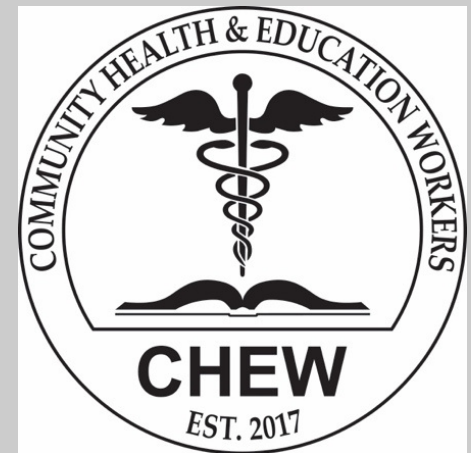

- School website, enrollment and resources
- School applications (Lunch, Mckinney Vento, Etc)
- Targeted Population School Services

A COMMUNITY ACADEMIC PARTNERSHIP BETWEEN LOMA LINDA
UNIVERSITY AND EL SOL
NEIGHBORHOOD EDUCATIONAL
CENTER WITH CHAFFEY JOINT UNION
HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT

Community Health and Education Worker (C.H.E.W.) Program

WE ARE THE BRIDGE BETWEEN
HOME, SCHOOL, AND COMMUNITY