A symphony of learning!

From Novice to Emerging Artists

Some kids know from a young age that they want to be a musician, while others have multiple interests and find music a useful accompaniment to their many artistic and academic pursuits. Our student body is broad and diverse. At KCM, you'll find preschoolers who are learning to shake maracas and move their bodies to a rhythm, and upper elementary music students who are taking center stage as they perform throughout our community and start preparing for middle school auditions and beyond.

“Music has taught me discipline, how to express myself and step out of my comfort zone when performing, being part of a group, and being proud that I had a unique skill that most people do not have.” — Choir student
